

Internship Certificate

This is to certify that Mr. Hossein Farahnaki, a student of Sharif University of Technology, undertook an internship at the Tsinghua–Kelan Advanced Intelligent Database Research Institute from June 1, 2025 to September 20, 2025.

During the internship, he worked conscientiously and was thoughtful in his approach. He was able to flexibly apply the knowledge he had learned at university to concrete work tasks, and completed his assignments with both high quality and efficiency. When he encountered difficulties or things he did not understand, he actively consulted experienced colleagues and listened humbly to their suggestions.

At the same time, the student strictly abided by all laboratory rules and regulations, followed the internship arrangements, and completed the tasks assigned to him. He got along well with his colleagues and demonstrated an excellent spirit of teamwork and strong communication skills. All staff members who worked with him spoke highly of his performance.

During the internship period, he completed the analysis and refactoring of part of the database module code.

His internship at our institute has now been completed. This certificate is hereby issued.
